Free MOOCs

KSU students, staff, and faculty can take free MOOC courses and specializations, earning free digital micro-credentialing

Over 2,800 MOOCs (Massive Open Online Courses) offered by certain Coursera partners are available at no charge to KSU students, faculty and staff via their NetID, including all MOOCs and specializations, designed and delivered by KSU faculty.

Community and Professional Education is excited to provide this access and affordability to the KSU community via the Coursera/KSU partnership.

What does this mean for you? Whether you are interested in becoming a high-performing professional salesperson, an entrepreneur, exploring a new career, or the world of cybersecurity, there is now a free option for earning a Coursera Certificate. Differentiate yourself and your KSU learning experience with one of the most powerful micro-credentials offered.

How does it work?

As long as you are a current KSU student, staff, or faculty, you can sign up within Coursera under the KSU Learning Program and immediately gain access to over 2800 courses and specializations. With this access, you can earn digital micro-credentials that you can add to your LinkedIn, resumé, and other social sites.

Use the link/button below to access the KSU Learning Program, then:

Step 1: Click "Join"

Step 2: Click "Sign Up" on the top black bar (DO NOT USE "Log in with Kennesaw State University")

Step 3: Enter your full name

Step 4: Enter your KSU email address

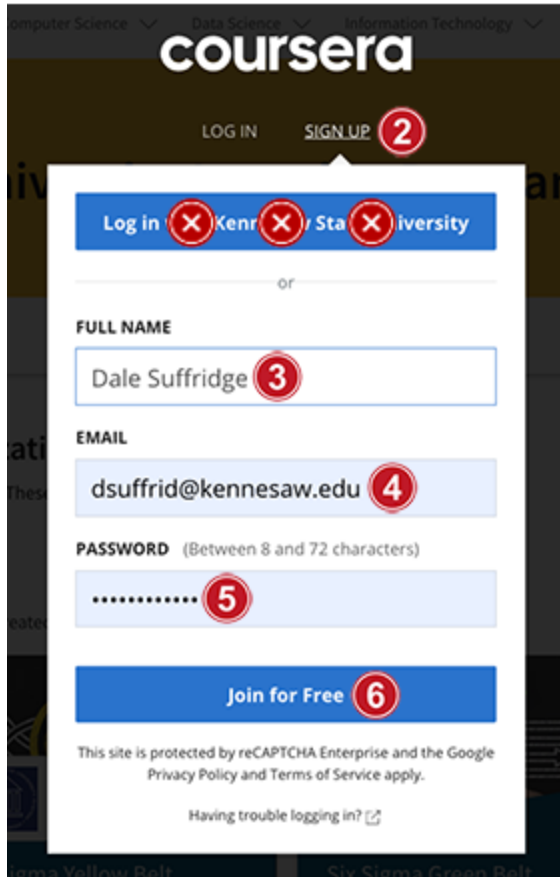

Step 5: Enter a password (This can be your NetID password or a different password that you create)

Step 6: Click "Join for Free"

Step 7: You will receive an email from Coursera to verify your account.

Step 8: Verify your account

Step 9: Login to Coursera with your email and the password you created.

Once you login, you will see all the KSU MOOC content and some Coursera content on the front page. To access the 2,800+ courses, just use the search bar at the top of the page and search for the content that you are interested in.
